To: Parents/Guardians of 10th Grade Students

Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s):

As you may know, the 10th grade students are currently studying the Holocaust in Global 10 and English 10. The novel the students are currently reading, Night, is one survivor's account of what he went through during the Holocaust.

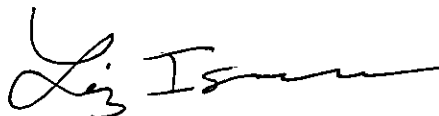

Students will have the unique opportunity on Tuesday, March 27th, to hear Holocaust survivor Herman Stone speak to them about his own experiences. He and his family were forced to leave Germany in 1939 and immigrate to the United States because they were Jewish. He later settled here in Western New York.

We are writing to make you aware of this because of the potentially sensitive subject matter when it comes to the Holocaust. Students will be hearing a personal account of the Holocaust, and may be disturbed by some of what they hear. This will, however, strengthen their understanding of this historical event. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact your child's teacher.

Sincerely,

Jack Graham, Global 10

Liz Isaacs, English 10

Julia Ramsdell, English 10
